

Tate Street Arts and Music Festival

PRESENTS

CARNIVALE

Dear Artist/Craftsperson:

The Tate Street Merchants Association is happy to announce that the CARNIVALE will be held on Saturday March 29th, 2008 with booths located on both Tate St. and Walker St. This festival sponsored by the College Hill Neighborhood Association will provide a fun-filled afternoon for the whole community to enjoy music, the arts, dance, and performance.

This festival is a tradition and is always well attended. We are advertised in local publications, remote publications, radio stations, television stations, in the surrounding neighborhoods, and at several local Universities. The entertainment will be tremendous and the music, as always, will fill the streets throughout the whole day.

We are offering booths at first-come basis upon committee approval and receipt of funds. We encourage you to return your application and fees as soon as possible, because we will only accept a limited number of vendors.
